🏠 ROSH CHODESH IN THE 3RD-5TH GRADE

The girls in grades 3-5 enjoyed a Rosh Chodesh Activity in honor of Rosh Chodesh Adar Beis. This month the girls learned about when we say the Bracha of Shehecheyanu. After learning that getting new clothing is an opportunity to say "Shehecheyanu", they crafted adorable, beaded hangers. The 5th grade Rosh Chodesh heads did a super job presenting the song and helping out during the activity!

4TH AND 5TH GRADE CANTATA

On Tuesday evening, the talmidos in grades 4 and 5 presented an incredible cantata entitled, "בית יעקב לכו ונלכה באור ה'". The audience enjoyed every minute, as the legacy of Sara Schneurer and her famous פסוקים came to life. Through song, dance and drama, each girl's talent shone on stage. We have so much Hakaras Hatov to Mrs. Breitman for giving לב ונפש to every detail, and to Miss R. Knopf for directing, producing, and coordinating this magnificent event! A tremendous thank you to Miss Kaganoff and to our incredible moros- Morah Cohen, Morah Gold, Morah Schwartz, Morah Wender, Morah Knopf, Morah Lauer, Morah Siegal, and Morah Tenenbaum for giving their talmidos this opportunity to shine.

6TH FRACTION COOKBOOKS IN THE 6TH GRADE

Mrs. Berger's sixth grade worked hard on their fraction cookbooks. This assignment was the culmination of their unit on fractions and a highlight of the year for the students. Using six recipes of their choice, the girls had to do mathematical computations such as doubling, tripling and halving the recipes. They each created a unique cookbook with these recipes. Extra points were awarded for creativity. The girls were very excited about this project and used their artistic talents as well as math knowledge. The final products were outstanding both in their originality and accuracy! Cooking and baking are just two examples of some of the practical uses of fractions in everyday life and the girls have gained a new appreciation for the math lessons they have learned this year.

DANCING

On Rosh Chodesh Adar Beis, Kitos Hey led the girls in Kitos Gimmel and Daled in spirited "משכנבס אדר" dancing. We look forward to a chodesh full of Simcha!
